May Students of the Month

Anna Brahler - Fifth Grade Kiwanis Student of the Month

Anna was selected because she is always quietly kind and helpful. She is a joy to have in class and works very hard to be the good student she is. Anna loves sports! Her favorites are softball, soccer and basketball. She also enjoys reading, swimming, playing outside and spending time with her friends. Her favorite subjects in school are social studies and gym. Anna's family consists of her younger brother Jonathan and parents Bob and Jen Brahler. She has a dog, 2 cats, and 1 hamster. When she grows up, she would like to become a veterinarian. Anna would like to take a dream trip to Hawaii with her family to see the ocean and the volcanoes. We are proud to have Anna represent Lexington as Student of the Month.

Hana Cottrell is our Fourth Grade Student of the Month

Hana was selected because she is always polite, helpful to other students, and a very good student. She pays attention in class, takes pride in her work and sets a good example. Hana is very nice and sweet. She has one older brother, Dakota; one older sister, Cheyenne; and one younger sister, Grace. Her parents are Jeff and Lana Cottrell. Hana has 2 dogs, 2 hamsters, and a whole lot of fish! Her favorite subjects in school are social studies and math. When not in school, Hana takes gymnastics at the Y and likes to practice. She also likes to go swimming and play with her sisters. She loves school because she gets to learn awesome things. She would like to visit Florida to go to the beaches. Hana would like to become an elementary teacher when she grows up. Keep up the great work Hana!

Colton Wade is our Third Grade Student of the Month

Colton was selected because he is enthusiastic about learning and is eager to always participate in all of his classes. He gives detailed explanations in his work and makes good use of class time. Colton is friendly to others and gets along well with his classmates. Colton loves to play Hot Stove baseball. He also likes to play basketball, soccer, and this fall will become a Little Duke football player. He also enjoys swimming and playing his X-Box. Colton has one older brother, Austin; one younger sister, Madison and a dog named Mylee. He is the son of Dave and Heidi Wade. Joe Dimaggio is someone he really admires and would like to be like him. His favorite thing about school is learning and being with his friends. Colton is looking forward to visiting California on vacation this summer. He would also like to go to the Grand Canyon and go white water rafting. Great job, Colton!

Yearbooks! Yearbooks! Yearbooks!

Carnival News!

Come join us for the Lexington PTO Annual Carnival on May 14th! Food, fun and games! Highlighting the night is our very popular basket raffle. We have several great baskets filled with goodies galore. This is a great family event which offers something for everyone. Pre-sale bracelets are on sale now. If you did not receive your order form, contact us at 330-823-7570.

Lunch Charges

If you feel your child's lunch account is running low, please add money to it or call to check. It is that time of the year to cut off lunch charges beginning Monday, May 10th. At this time, students will no longer be permitted to charge their lunch. Any monies left over this year on your child's account will automatically be transferred to their lunch account for next school year. Any questions? Call 330-823-7570 and ask to speak to Mrs. Karns.

"Why I'm Proud to be An American"

"Why I'm Proud to be An American" was the theme of the Lexington Ruritan's Essay Contest for Lexington 5th grade students. The 1st place winners are Benjamin Carman and Karissa Cowgill. Second place winners are Emma Gill and Rosie Montesano. Kassidy Ring and Julianna Goshorn are the 3rd place winners. On Monday, May 10 at 7:00 PM, the 1st place winners and their families are invited to the Ruritan dinner/meeting at Science Hill Church. After dinner, Karissa and Benjamin will be asked to read their award winning essays. Congratulations to all!
