Dynamite Dukes

These students in kindergarten, first grade and second grade were chosen as their classrooms' Dynamite Dukes. They were chosen because they follow all of the DUKE Pride Expectations and are great role models for other students. Congratulations to the following:

Kindergarten

Mrs. DelCalzo - Liam Cosma
Mrs. Gullace - Emma Jenkins
Miss Hattery - Bentley Taylor

First Grade

Mrs. Schneider - Sophia Sharpiro
Mrs. Sharkey - Kamden Muniz
Mr. Woods - Jrew Johnson

Second Grade

Mr. Gerber - Armoni Wade
Mrs. Hermann - Andrew Bell
Miss Karasarides - Aven Morgan

Students of the Month

Third Grade

Mrs. Lauter chose Lillian Mooney.

Lillian is a fun, spirited young lady. She always enters the room with a smile and a hug. She is kind-hearted and will assist anyone who needs some extra help. She enjoys making the class laugh with her jokes. She has made great strides academically, too!

So proud of you, Lilly!

Mrs. Myers chose Mackenzie Carpenter.

Mackenzie has been working very hard to improve in her learning. She is a great friend to her classmates and is very helpful to her teachers. Mackenzie arrives every morning with a bright smile on her face and a happy attitude, showing that she's ready to learn. Keep up the positive work and attitude, Mackenzie. We are proud of you!

Mrs. Wade chose Hunter Jenkins.

Hunter is always a friendly face in our room and is a good friend to others. He tries hard even though things can be challenging. He perseveres through the toughest of activities, and he has the never-give-up attitude, always willing to try.

Fourth Grade

Ms. Rubel chose Celine Nguyen.

Celine was chosen as Student of the Month, as she is a perfect example for Duke Pride Expectations. She is a very sweet and polite young lady that always does her best. Celine is always available to help her peers and her teachers. We enjoy having her in our class.

Mrs. Shoemaker chose Sophia Wainuskis.

Sophia has been working diligently to tackle fourth-grade skills. She never gives up and continues to stay positive. Sophia is a great example of a DUKE because she is friendly, considerate and kind. She works quietly at her desk when assigned a task. Sophia enjoys art and seems to have a talent for drawing. Keep showing improvement and growth in fourth grade, Sophia!

Fifth Grade

Mrs. Kellams chose Brian Cain.

Brian was chosen by his teachers for Student of the Month because he shines in the classroom. Brian works very hard to complete his work with accuracy, and he finishes work at home if he does not complete it at school. He is also extremely thoughtful and kind. He helps other students and does his best to help take care of our classroom by helping to pick up scraps on the floor and put up extra chairs at the end of the day. Brian, thank you for your positive attitude, perseverance and helpfulness!

Mrs. Porter chose Teagan Hoffman.

Teagan is a very quiet student who doesn't like a lot of attention. However, he deserves it! Teagan works extremely hard at school daily and if something is difficult he makes sure to ask for help. Teagan is also hard-working outside of the classroom, as he plays soccer, basketball and rides dirt bikes too! We are proud of the dedication that Teagan puts forth, both in and out of school.

Way to be a determined DUKE!

Kiwanis

Kiwanis Student of the Month is Caitlen Pauli.

Caitlen is a fabulous role model for her peers. She goes above and beyond in every aspect. From entering our read-a-thon and crushing her goal, to winning an optional essay contest, she always gives 110%. If a teacher needs help or a student is struggling, Caitlen is there to lend a hand. She is also a very kind and compassionate student, as she volunteers to help students in the younger grades as well. Way to go, Caitlen - Keep up the GREAT work!
