Students of the Month

Kiwanis Student of the Month

Samantha Povroznik

Samantha is a very helpful DUKE. She looks after her classmates and younger students alike. Samantha is always willing to help and uses good judgement when making choices both in and out of class. Samantha continues to work hard and brings a positive attitude to class. She consistently participates in class and is an enthusiastic teacher helper. Her grades and actions reflect that of a focused 5th grade student who is goal-oriented and able to take on the challenges of a responsible Duke. Congratulations, Samantha! You set a reputable example for your peers.

Fifth Grade

Mrs. Beadles chose Alijah Metzger. Alijah was chosen for his approachable personality and for his aptitude in building lasting friendships while performing the duties of a very capable 5th grade student. Keeping calm and working well in various situations is a strength of Alijah's. He is able to adapt to diverse situations and meet challenges, head on, with his jovial personality. He always uses good manners in class, along with positive interactions to solve problems. He is a good communicator and demonstrates patience with his peers. Thank you, Alijah, for setting an awesome example of what it means to be a Duke!

Mrs. Kellams chose Cole Irwin. Cole was chosen because he has been doing an excellent job following our Duke Pride school rules. Cole is energetic and ready to get to work when he comes to school. He stays on task and gets his classwork done on time. He has also been eager to help his classmates and staff in the building. Way to make great choices, Cole!

Mrs. Porter chose Kendra Szegedi-Royal. Kendra is a wonderful example of DUKE Pride. Kendra has improved her work ethic this school year. If she is confused by something in class, she is not afraid to raise her hand and ask for help. She always tries her best, stays focused on the task at hand, and participates in class. In addition, she has a kind and respectful attitude. She is always willing to help out in the classroom. Way to shine Kendra!

Ms. Rubel chose Madison Cooper. Madison was chosen because she represents what it takes to be a Student of the Month. She shows outstanding character in several ways. She is responsible, organized and reliable. Every day she works hard in the classroom and takes great pride in her work. She enjoys helping her teachers and her peers. Madison is a joy to have in class and her smile brightens up the classroom each and every day.

Fourth Grade

Mrs. Craig chose Marisa Casto. Marisa is a hardworking student that not only gives her best effort in her academics, but also works hard at showing kindness and respect to everyone around her. She sets a great example in the classroom and is considerate of her peers. We love having Marisa as part of our room 303 family! Well done, Marisa!

Mrs. Lauter chose Caitlin Imhoff. Caitlin is very organized and always on task. She is kind and respectful to everyone, and her smile will brighten anyone's day. Caitlin is always willing to lend a hand to help out a fellow classmate. Great job, Caitlin!

Mrs. Shoemaker chose Isaac Brusso. Isaac is shining this winter. He is very helpful when it comes to keeping the classroom clean and is often found cleaning up after a painting project. Isaac is friendly and enjoys sharing his kindness so he has many friends. He works hard when we have difficult assignments and does not give up. Keep up the great DUKE attitude!

Third Grade

Mrs. Myers chose Caitlen Pauli. Caitlen shows her sparkling personality every day. She has demonstrated an extraordinary capacity for caring and kindness toward the students at Lexington, whether its students in our classroom or other classes. She is a super hard worker and always works over and above the goals set for the day. Way to go, Caitlen!

Ms. Schick chose Jayden Conley. Jayden has shown a huge improvement in his daily work, his math and reading fluency, and on his State Tests. He is kind to his peers and a quiet leader in our classroom.

Mrs. Wade chose Hunter Oyster. Hunter works super hard in all areas and cares very much about doing his best, no matter how hard he may have to work. He listens well and contributes in class always. I appreciate his dedication, enthusiasm and willingness to take on new challenges. He has such a positive attitude and cares about people, as it shows in his respect toward others.

Lexington Kindergarten Roundup

Lexington Elementary will hold its Kindergarten Roundup for the 2020-2021 class on Thursday, April 2. If you have a child or know of a child that will be five (5) years old on or before August 1, please call the school office at 330-823-7570 to schedule an appointment. Your child must be five (5) years old on or before August 1 to enroll in kindergarten. All forms this year will be completed online. We will provide more information once it is available. Your child's screening will take approximately an hour to complete at Kindergarten Roundup. It is very important that you enroll your child and have them attend Kindergarten Roundup! If you have any questions, please call the school office at 330-823-7570.

Yearbook Orders

It is that time of year to begin taking orders for our Lexington Yearbook. Order forms with pricing will be sent home and you can reserve your copy by filling out the form and returning with payment. We only order a few extra copies, so if you would like a yearbook, please order one now. This book provides wonderful memories of your child's school year!

Hoop Shoot Winners

Hoop Shoot was held at the Moulin Center on January 12. Below are the winners in their respective age groups:

8-9-Year-Old Age Group: Brady Griggs and Shelby Odey

10-11-Year-Old Age Group: Cole Jones and Chelsea Miller

12-13-Year-Old Age Group: Kaden Weston

Congrats to Brady Griggs, Shelby Odey, and Cole Jones for advancing to the next round!
