JIM JACOBS (Book, Music and Lyrics). Jacobs, who created Grease (in 1970) with Warren Casey, was born and raised on the mean streets of Chicago's far northwest side. During the golden era of rock 'n' roll (1956-1960) he was a guitar-playing "greaser" student at Taft High School. In 1963, Jacobs met Warren Casey when they were both cast in a local theatre production of A Shot in the Dark. Seven years later they wrote what was to become one of the greatest musicals of all time. Grease opened in 1971 in a former trolley barn called the Kingston Mines Theatre in Chicago. A year later, Grease made it to Broadway and "Greasemania" took off, resulting in one of the longest running shows in Broadway history. The 1978 movie became and remains the highest grossing movie musical of all time. Originally an actor, Jacobs has been seen on television, in motion pictures, regional theatre, national tours, and on Broadway. He is the co-author of several other plays and musicals including Island of Lost Coeds, a musical spoof of the low budget sci-fi/horror/jungle movies of the 1950s, which he wrote with Warren Casey. In May 2014, Mr. Jacobs was presented with an honorary doctorate degree from Columbia College in Chicago. He currently resides in Southern California and remains active in the theatre, especially with the American Theatre Company of Chicago.

WARREN CASEY (Author, Composer and Lyricist) was born in Yonkers, New York, and attended Syracuse University. During the late '50s, he learned all about "greasers" while working as an art teacher in upstate New York. He moved to Chicago in 1962, where he hoped to pursue an acting career. He appeared in dozens of productions, including creating the role of Bernie Litko in David Mamet's Sexual Perversity in Chicago. He supported himself with jobs in retail, including working as an assistant manager of a chain of apparel stores, and as a record salesman. In the meantime, he taught himself how to play the guitar and began writing songs. Mr. Casey acted with the Chicago Stage Guild (where he met Jim Jacobs), the Old Town Players, and the Kingston Mines Theatre. The latter company staged the original production of GREASE which he wrote with Jim Jacobs. After the incredible success of both the musical and the movie, the two collaborated on Island of Lost Coeds, a musical satire of the B-movies of the 1950s. Mr. Casey died in 1988.

Synopsis

It's 1959, and Rydell High School's senior class is in rare form. The too-cool-for-school Burger Palace Boys are getting into trouble and acting tough and their gum-snapping, hip-shaking "Pink Ladies" are looking their best in bobby sox and pedal pushers. The 1950s high school dream is about to explode in this rollicking musical that is both an homage to the idealism of the fifties and a satire of high schoolers' age-old desire to be rebellious and provocative. At the heart of the story is the romance between hot-rodding gangster Danny Zuko and the sweet new girl in town, Sandy Dumbrowski.

They had a secret romance in summer, but now back in the context of school, peer-pressure and cliques make their love a bit more complicated. Can Danny maintain his cool dude status and still make demure Sandy his girl? The whole gang sings and dances around Danny and Sandy's romance, through such hit songs as Greased Lightnin', We Go Together, You're The One That I Want, and Hopelessly Devoted to You; recalling the music of Buddy Holly, Little Richard and Elvis Presley that became the soundtrack of a generation.

Cast Bios

Dakota Albertoni is a senior this year and plays the part of Sonny Latierri. At Marlinton, he was Grimsby in The Little Mermaid, Bert Healy in Annie, and a dancer in Cinderella. He has also been involved on and offstage at Carnation City Players. Some of his notable onstage roles at CCP include Weselton in Frozen, Drake in Honk, Slim in Oklahoma, and most recently Marlin in Finding Nemo. His favorite thing about being involved in Grease is hearing his drum instructor Mr. Marshall having so much fun playing drum set in the pit orchestra. After graduation, Dakota plans to attend the University of Mount Union to study writing and media history.

Annalee Anderson is a senior this year and is one of our student directors. This is her first time being involved in a drama production and she says that her favorite thing about it is watching the “behind the scenes”, making new friends and hanging out with old friends.

Patience Apodaca is a senior this year and is one of our back stage managers. During her years at Marlinton, she has helped backstage for The Little Mermaid, Annie, and Cinderella. Her favorite thing about being involved in Grease is Emma Peterson, and just being backstage as a whole. Her plans after graduation are to go to college to study music and/or to be a counselor.

Samantha Brooks is a freshman this year and is helping backstage for our show. Her only previous involvement in drama has been participating in church plays. She says that her favorite thing about being involved in Grease is that she is making new friends.

Jake Bullock is a sophomore this year and he plays the part of Doody. Last year, he was a member of the chorus for Cinderella, and in 2019 he played the part of Chip in Marlinton’s production of Beauty And The Beast. His favorite thing about being involved in the musical this year is being able to spend time with friends before they graduate.

Emma Byers is a junior this year and she is a member of the chorus. Previously, she participated in Cinderella, Annie, and, when she was in middle school, Beauty And The Beast. She says that her favorite thing about being part of Grease is listening to how the music develops with the dances.

Chloe Caldwell is a junior this year and is a member of the chorus in our show. Last year, she participated in our production of Cinderella. She says “I love the cast as a whole and the choreography is extremely fun this year! The songs are also the best.”

Chloe Cantwell is a senior this year and plays the part of Jan. Here at Marlinton, she has previously participated in The Little Mermaid, Annie, and Cinderella. She was also a munchkin when she was in elementary school for our production of The Wizard of Oz, as well as other elementary productions. Her favorite things about being part of the show this year is spending time with fun and talented people, and learning new music and dances. She plans to attend Ohio University after graduation and major in Social Work.

Quinn Cernansky is a junior this year and plays the part of Sandy. She has previously been involved in Annie, and Cinderella here are MHS, as well as musicals in elementary school. She says that her favorite thing about being involved in the show this year is being surrounded by a positive environment, and the singing and dancing.

Maddie Coblentz is a sophomore this year and is a member of the chorus in our show. Here at Marlinton, she was involved in Beauty And The Beast, Annie (running a spotlight), and Cinderella. She participated in a production of The Little Mermaid at the Canton Palace Theater, and through Carnation City Players, she has been part of Newsies, Jr., Honk! Jr., The Music Man, and was last seen as Bubbles in Finding Nemo, Jr. She says “it is such an amazing opportunity to recreate a classic like Grease with the people I love!”

Connor Cole is a freshman this year at Marlinton. He plays Vince Fontaine in our show. This is the first time he has been part of a drama production. When asked what his favorite thing about being part of the production this year is, he says “I love being able run around during the prom scene and dance with my friends.”

Bella Davis is a freshman this year and is a member of the chorus in our show. This is her first time being involved in a drama production, and she says that her favorite thing about being part of Grease is the people in it.

Sydney Davis is a senior this year and she is a member of the chorus in our show. Previously, she participated in our productions of Cinderella and The Little Mermaid. She says that her favorite thing about being part of the show this year is meeting new people. After graduation, she plans to take prerequisite classes through Stark State, and then attend Akron University to study Social Work.

Tana Davis is a freshman this year and is part of the chorus. This is her first time participating in a musical production, and she says that her favorite thing about being in the show is that “it’s fun singing and dancing to one of my favorite musicals.” Also, she says “the cast and tech crew are amazing!”

Meagan Dennison is a sophomore this year at Marlinton. She is part of our tech team and is helping run the sound board. Last year, she helped with sound for our production of Cinderella. She says that her favorite thing about helping with Grease is that “it’s incredible to see everyone having fun and growing to be amazing people.”

From the Directors

Putting a production such as this together really does take a village! We have had such an amazing team of people to work with, and we could never have done this without the help of many individuals.

We would like to say thank you to the following people:

To the cast and crew of Grease: Once again, your talents and efforts have come together to create another memorable experience on the Marlinton stage! We couldn't be more proud of the time and work you have given to produce another wonderful show. You are all the best!

To all parents/guardians: Thank you for letting us have your sons/daughters for the last two months! We are aware of the commitment and sacrifices that you have made to allow this to happen. Thank you for any and all ways that you have helped us. We could not have done this without your help and support.

Leslie Pierce: Thank you for helping with the ticket sales and for your willingness to be there for us again this year. Your contribution has been invaluable to us!

Special thanks to all of our colleagues here at Marlinton High School who have supported our efforts either monetarily or in the many other ways that you have helped. You are a staff that we are proud to be part of!

Mike Farrell, Greg Travis and Steve Miller: Thank you for all the ways you show your support of our Drama Dukes Department!

Olivia Morey: It is a special thing to have an alum who used to perform on this stage return to share your amazing talent by helping with the choreography again this year! Know that you are appreciated and you always have a home here at Marlinton!

Calle Knisley: Thank you for helping with the set design and coordinating art students to paint our set! It couldn't look more amazing than it does every year!

Stephannie McGuire: Thank you for helping with costume alterations! Your willingness to share your time and talents with us helps more than you know!

Jeff Oyster: It is such a pleasure to have you as part of our team! Your talent with wood and screws is amazing, and we are beyond grateful for the time you spend building our set for us every year!

Congratulations Dukes!

Buying or Selling?

A photograph of a woman, Caitlin Tasker, standing in front of a two-story house. She is wearing a denim jacket over a white top and black pants, and is holding a white sign that says "FOR SALE" in blue letters. The house behind her has a stone and siding exterior, a gabled roof, and a green lawn.
