

Math Boxes

*Print out on card stock.

*Laminate for durability.

*Cut apart the numbers. Laminate for durability.

*Put the question mark in one of the spaces. Choose another number for another space. If there are two numbers in the boxes, add them to get the number underneath. If there is a number in a box, a question mark in the other box and the answer under the boxes, subtract.

Created by Corrie Schneider

Graphics by Scrappin Doodles

www.scrappindoodles.com

?

6

Example

With this example, you would subtract to find out what the missing number is.

10

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

?

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20